Importance of Sports

Activities relating to Sports are essential components of human resource development, helping to promote good health, comradeship and a spirit of friendly competition which in turn has positive impact on the overall development of personality of the youth. Excellence in sports enhances the sense of achievement, national pride and patriotism. Sports also provide beneficial recreation, improve productivity and foster social harmony and discipline.

Policies and Procedure

It is the responsibility of the organisation to ensure that the relevant policies are in place and that they are communicated effectively to everyone involved.

Code of conduct/behaviour

Codes of conduct/behaviour should be in place for coaches, volunteers, spectators and participants. These should be promoted to and adopted by everyone concerned. In case of misbehaviour reported strict disciplinary actions will be taken on the individual immediately by Sport in charge or the members of the committee. The decision of the authority will be considered as unquestionable.

Health & Safety

It includes details of:

- Participants consent forms (including details of emergency contacts, medical history, special requirements and where necessary consent for photography and/or video to be taken).
- How to respond to an incident or accident.
- Who should contact if health & safety concern arise.

Equity Policy/Statement

The rights, dignity and worth of everyone should be respected and everyone should be treated equally within the context of their sport. This should be reflected within the organisations constitution.
